

PRESS RELEASE

KIC Motorsport announces Francesco Braschi for the 2022 season

Rome, February 27, 2022

KIC Motorsport renews its participation in Formula Regional European Championship by Alpine also for 2022 season with three single-seaters. The first driver to be announced is the young Francesco Braschi.

The 17-year-old Italian boasts a competitive career that has seen him compete in various series such as Italian Formula 4 Championship, F4 Spanish, ADAC F4 and F4 UAE. This year the driver from Cattolica will face a new challenge debuting with a car of the Finnish team in the European championship.

Francesco Braschi - driver KIC Motorsport

"This is a great chance for me, and I can't wait to hit the track to start working with my new team. I'm pushing very hard to be as much ready as possible and achieve the best possible results. I want to thanks all at KIC for having offered to me this opportunity."

Peter Flythström - team manager KIC Motorsport

"We're more than happy to welcome Francesco Braschi to KIC Motorsport in season 2022 edition of FRECA. We have been followed his career and we know how much potential he has. He is big part to our path to success. Welcome to KIC Motorsport family."

#PurposeDriven

ALPINE

